Hi Amanda –

Sorry for the delayed response to your message.

Section 571.107.1 of the Revised Statutes of Missouri contains the following language: “[A] concealed carry endorsement or permit issued by another state or political subdivision of another state shall authorize the person in whose name the permit or endorsement is issued to carry concealed firearms on or about his or her person or vehicle throughout the state.” <https://revisor.mo.gov/main/OneSection.aspx?section=571.107&bid=29721>

Our statutes do not contain additional provisions relating to any mandatory aspects of other states’ endorsements or permits.

I hope this answers your questions. Thanks for reaching out.

Jon
